JERRY REINSDORF

CHAIRMAN

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 41st season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox in 2021, becoming only the seventh individual in Major League Baseball history to reach the 40-year milestone as a club owner (Connie Mack of the Philadelphia A's holds the mark with 50 seasons in leadership).

During his time as chairman, Reinsdorf's two professional sports teams – the White Sox and the NBA's Chicago Bulls – have delivered seven World Championship titles to the city of Chicago and its fans. Reinsdorf accepted the Commissioner's Trophy from Bud Selig on October 26, 2005, after the White Sox swept their way to the team's first World Series Championship since 1917. The championship was celebrated by a ticker-tape parade attended by nearly 2 million Chicagoans.

The White Sox have reached the postseason six times during Reinsdorf's tenure, most recently in 2020 when the team claimed a Wild Card spot. The Sox captured division titles in 1983, 1993, 2000, 2005 and 2008. Every one of the club's Top 20 single-season attendance totals have come since 1981, including a franchise-record 2.95 million fans in 2006.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox have received four prestigious honors in recognition of the franchise's ongoing commitment to giving back to the community. In June 2011, Reinsdorf traveled to Washington D.C. to accept the Jefferson Award, one of the nation's top honors for community service and volunteerism, known as the "Nobel Prize for Public Service." In August 2011, Reinsdorf received the Barnes and Thornburg Jackie Robinson Award for diversity in the workplace, and in November 2011, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were honored by Commissioner Bud Selig with the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the club's Volunteer Corps. In September 2012, Reinsdorf and the White Sox were again recognized nationally, receiving the Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in sports philanthropy for the team's Volunteer Corps program. Reinsdorf's life-long support for charitable and community organizations has resulted in numerous other awards and recognitions.

In response to President Barack Obama's call to service in 2009, Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the White Sox Volunteer Corps to support the Chicagoland community through service. The Corps, now consisting of staff, players and more than 5,000 fan volunteers, has mobilized to provide more than 53,000 hours of community service with an estimated value of $1.5 million during its 12 years of existence, including work renovating Chicago Public Schools, remodeling local Boys & Girls Clubs and donating time at the Greater Chicago Food Depository.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises have donated millions of dollars to causes in the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and Chicago Bulls Charities. Since 2019, the White Sox held 61 events to connect with the community and coordinated more than 900 appearances by players and staff, as well as donated over $550,000 in in-kind support and engaged over 17,000 youth in baseball initiatives. Chicago White Sox Charities has donated more than $35 million to Chicagoland organizations in cumulative giving since its inception. In 2015, the Chicago Bulls received honors as the inaugural ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year, and in 2017, the White Sox were finalists for the same award, which celebrates and recognizes how members of the sports industry use sport to serve their communities and make a positive impact. In December 2017, owners for five Chicago sports teams – the Bears, Blackhawks, Bulls, Cubs and White Sox – joined together as the Chicago Sports Alliance to donate $1 million annually to the UChicago Crime Lab and other worthy programs in an ongoing effort to support solutions to the violence that plagues some neighborhoods in Chicago.

Reinsdorf and the White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program in 2007. Sponsored by Chicago White Sox Charities, ACE provides urban-based and largely minority youth the opportunity to play in a high-quality travel baseball program. In its 14 years, ACE has produced 30 draft selections, while over 200 ACE players have signed scholarships to play college baseball. ACE alums have won NCAA Championships and have been drafted as high as the first round (fifth pick overall).

In recognition of his life-long commitment to promoting diversity, Reinsdorf's White Sox hosted Major League Baseball's 2013 Diversity Summit in Chicago, and the franchise also was chosen to host the annual Civil Rights Game and Beacon Awards Luncheon in August 2014.

Reinsdorf has been responsible for the construction of four new sports facilities in Chicago. In addition to the building of new Comiskey Park (1991), Reinsdorf initiated construction of three other major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, the Sheri L. Berto Center served as the Bulls training facility from 1992-2014, and the Advocate Center, which opened in 2014 and now serves as the Bulls practice and training facility in downtown Chicago. The White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers also opened a state-of-the-art spring training complex, named Camelback Ranch — Glendale, in 2009.

Over the past two decades, Reinsdorf, the White Sox and the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority have undertaken dramatic offseason renovations to Guaranteed Rate Field. In 2016, three new, state-of-the-art video boards were installed in the ballpark, and the team added "The Goose Island," an innovative seating area in right field, in 2019.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has been involved in Major League Baseball initiatives at an industry-wide level. Currently, he serves on the Commissioner's Executive Council. In the past, he has served on many other committees, including Player Relations, Relocation, Ownership & Legislative, Business and Media Board and Long-Range Labor Planning.

OFFICERS

Reinsdorf was instrumental in the formation of the Diverse Business Partners (DBP) Program in 1998, and Major League Baseball honored Reinsdorf and the White Sox with the Club Appreciation Award in 2018 to celebrate the program's 20th anniversary. Over the past 20 years, Major League Baseball and its clubs have purchased hundreds of millions of dollars in goods and services from minority and women-owned businesses, and the White Sox annually rank among baseball's leaders in the DBP program.

In 2008, his long history of donating time to Major League Baseball led to Reinsdorf being asked to serve on the Board of The Baseball Hall of Fame. Frank Thomas and Tony La Russa were inducted as members of the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014, Tim Raines in 2017, Jim Thome in 2018, Harold Baines in 2019, and Ken "Hawk" Harrelson was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence in 2020.

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in March 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls – the third-longest in the NBA – the team has captured six World Championships (1991-93, '96-98). Reinsdorf was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2016 in Springfield, Mass., becoming the 10th NBA owner to be honored.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University after moving to Chicago in 1957. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have three surviving children and nine grandchildren.

HOWARD PIZER

SENIOR EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Howard Pizer begins his 41st season with the White Sox in 2021 after being promoted to the position of senior executive vice president by Jerry Reinsdorf on October 26, 2012.

Pizer, who attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf, has primary responsibility for the business and administrative operations of the White Sox as well as continuing oversight of the club's legal matters and governmental relations. The nearly 50-year business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group. He served as the club's executive vice president from 1981-2012.

As a member of Major League Baseball's President's Committee, Pizer collaborated with leaders across the industry to respond to challenges created by the global pandemic for the White Sox and for baseball. During his 40-year tenure with the White Sox, Pizer has supervised the franchise's hosting of two Major League All-Star Games (1983 and 2003), the team's six postseason appearances (1983, 1993, 2000, 2005, 2008 and 2020), and the 2005 World Series, the first won by a Chicago baseball team in 88 years. Pizer also has coordinated the team's last two Hall of Fame induction celebrations, for Frank Thomas in 2014 and Harold Baines in 2019.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to build new Comiskey Park, now Guaranteed Rate Field. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons. He continues to serve in an executive position at the United Center.

KEN WILLIAMS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Ken Williams begins his 40th season in professional baseball in 2021 and his ninth as executive vice president after being promoted to the position on October 26, 2012. In his present role, Williams has increased the scope and range of his involvement with the club while continuing to maintain oversight and final approval on major baseball decisions. He also attends Major League Baseball owners' meetings on the club's behalf.

The 2020 White Sox went 35-25 (.583) during the Covid-19 shortened 60-game season, earning an American League Wild Card postseason spot. This marked the fourth trip to the postseason for Williams with the White Sox, joining the division-winning team in 2000, when he was vice president of player development, the 2005 World Series Champions and the 2008 American League Central division winners.

Last season's White Sox featured the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1B José Abreu, runner-up for AL Rookie of the Year and Gold Glove-winning CF Luis Robert, three Silver Slugger Award winners in Abreu, SS Tim Anderson and OF Eloy Jiménez, and RHP Lucas Giolito, who tossed a no-hitter on August 25 against the Pittsburgh Pirates. Abreu is just the fourth White Sox player (fifth time) to earn MVP honors.

This winter, the baseball department's executive team of Williams and General Manager Rick Hahn added four pieces to the organization, acquiring RHP Lance Lynn from Texas in a December 8 trade, signing free agent OF Adam Eaton on December 10 (his second stint with the team), signing free agent Cuban OF Yoelqui Céspedes on January 15, and signing free agent closer Liam Hendriks (also on January 15).

Entering the 2021 season, the White Sox featured four prospects — 1B Andrew Vaughn, RHP Michael Kopech, 2B Nick Madrigal and LHP Garrett Crochet — ranked among the Top 100 in the game by several outlets. Vaughn and Madrigal were rated as the top prospects at their position by MLB.com, while Crochet became the first player from the 2020 draft class to reach the major leagues (September 18, 2020). According to Baseball America, from 2010-20 the Sox ranked No. 2 in baseball for most WAR (109.5) generated by players the team drafted and signed.

Williams spent 12 seasons (2001-12) as the White Sox general manager, winning two division titles with five second-place finishes. The club finished .500 or better nine times, going 1,014-931 (.521) over his 12 seasons, the best winning percentage in franchise history. Williams capped his fifth season as general manager in 2005 by winning the third World Series title in White Sox history and the first since 1917, ending an 88-year drought. The 2005 World Champion White Sox became just the second team in major-league history to lead its division wire-to-wire and sweep the World Series in four games. The other was the 1927 Yankees. The Sox were 11-1 in postseason play, winning their final eight games.

During his tenure as general manager, Williams acquired 171 players in 72 trades involving the major-league roster. His teams included four Cuban players, José Contreras, Orlando Hernández (2005), Alexei Ramírez (2008-15) and Dayan Viciedo (2010-14), and two Japanese players (Iguchi and Shingo Takatsu).

Williams was the first African-American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). From 2001-03, Williams and Jerry Manuel formed the first African-American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history. He was honored at the McDonald's 365Black Awards in July 2013 as one of the nation's history makers of today and tomorrow.

Williams has spent four decades in baseball in various capacities: player, scout, director of minor league operations, special assistant to the chairman, vice president of player development and general manager. He joined the front office in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities, and was named special assistant to Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. He served as director of minor-league operations from 1995-96 and vice president of player development from 1997-2000. Under his direction, the Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America and USA Today.

Active in the organization's community outreach programs, Williams takes part in the annual "Double Duty Classic" at the ballpark, speaking to young amateur baseball players about their role in the history of the sport. Williams supports the team's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball program, which has had 30 players drafted and over 200 players sign college scholarships to play baseball since it began in 2007. In 2013, he was named to MLB's Diversity Committee, an 18-member task force given the objective of increasing diversity in the game, particularly among black players.

Williams has been active in the team's "Becoming A Man" program, an initiative aimed at teaching young, at-risk men how to resolve conflict in a non-violent manner. The BAM program was recognized by President Barack Obama for its positive impact on the fight against urban violence. Williams also met with members of the READI program as part of the Chicago Sports Alliance's cooperative efforts to prevent gun violence.

A former outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 major-league games.

Born on April 6, 1964, in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. Williams is married to Zoraida Sambolin, the morning news anchor for WMAQ Channel 5. Together, she and Williams promote prostate and breast cancer awareness, education and early screening, as well as promoting the importance of Covid-19 testing and vaccination. In January 2019, the couple teamed with a local restaurant and St. Sabina's Church to offer free meals to workers negatively impacted by the government shutdown. Williams has three sons: Kenny Jr., who is assistant director of player development for the White Sox, Kyle, who played six years in the NFL including with the Super Bowl champion Denver Broncos in 2015, and Tyler, who played minor league baseball. Williams also has two step children: Nico, a member of the University of Iowa basketball team, and Sofia.

RICK HAHN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Hahn begins his ninth season as White Sox general manager in 2021 with the team aiming to accomplish an historic franchise first — reaching the postseason in consecutive seasons. With a 35-25 (.583) mark in the pandemic-shortened season, the 2020 White Sox earned an American League Wild Card postseason spot before being eliminated by the Oakland Athletics in a three-game Wild Card Series.

Hahn was named the 2020 Sporting News Major League Baseball Executive of the Year on October 15 in a vote by executives across Major League Baseball. He joined Roland Hemond (1972) and Bill Veeck (1977) as the only White Sox executives to win the honor, which was first awarded in 1936.

Hahn joined the organization in October 2000 and helped build the 2005 World Series Champion and 2008 postseason teams as assistant general manager to White Sox executive vice president Ken Williams. The Chicago-area native was promoted to senior vice president/general manager on October 26, 2012, and his duties now include oversight of all player personnel matters, coaching staff decisions and the club's player development and scouting operations.

The 2020 White Sox featured the AL Most Valuable Player in José Abreu, runner-up for AL Rookie of the Year and Gold Glove-winning CF Luis Robert, three Silver Slugger Award winners in Abreu (1B), SS Tim Anderson and OF Eloy Jiménez, and RHP Lucas Giolito, who entered the club's history books by throwing a no-hitter on August 25 vs. Pittsburgh. Abreu is just the fourth White Sox player (fifth time) to earn MVP honors, joining 2B Nellie Fox (1959), 1B Dick Allen (1972) and 1B Frank Thomas (1993-94).

This offseason the White Sox earned headlines with four major transactions, acquiring RHP Lance Lynn from Texas in a December 8 trade, signing free agent OF Adam Eaton on December 10 (his second stint with the team), signing free agent Cuban OF Yoelqui Céspedes on January 15, and signing free agent closer Liam Hendriks to a four-year, $54-million contract on the same day.

Entering the 2021 season, four White Sox prospects — 1B Andrew Vaughn, RHP Michael Kopech, 2B Nick Madrigal and LHP Garrett Crochet — were rated among the Top 100 in the game by several outlets. MLB.com ranked Vaughn and Madrigal as the top prospects at their position, while Crochet became the first player from the 2020 draft class to reach the major leagues (September 18, 2020). According to Baseball America, from 2010-20 the Sox ranked No. 2 in baseball for most WAR (109.5) generated by players drafted and signed by the team.

The White Sox agreed to a contract extension with Robert on January 2, 2020, continuing a long-standing desire to reach agreements with players viewed as core parts of the team's future. The Sox agreed with Jimenéz in 2019 and have a history of similar deals with Anderson, LHP Aaron Bummer, Eaton, LHP José Quintana, LHP Chris Sale, LHP Mark Buehrle, 1B Paul Konerko and many others. The agreements with Jiménez and Robert were noteworthy as each came prior to the player's major-league debut. On November 21, 2019, Hahn signed free agent C Yasmani Grandal to a four-year, $73-million contract, the largest in franchise history.

Hahn has added a number of talented prospects to the organization since 2016, including 3B Yoán Moncada, Baseball America's 2016 Minor League Player of the Year, and Kopech in a trade with the Boston Red Sox, and Giolito from the Washington Nationals in a multiplayer deal. During the 2017 season, Hahn acquired Jiménez, who topped AL rookies with 31 home runs in 2019, and RHP Dylan Cease, 2018 MLB Pipeline Pitcher of the Year, from the Chicago Cubs.

Seven of Hahn's nine first-round picks as general manager have reached the majors. Anderson (2013), LHP Carlos Rodón (2014), RHP Carson Fulmer (2015), C Zack Collins (2016), RHP Zack Burdi (2016), Madrigal (2018) and Crochet (2020) have already appeared for the White Sox, while other first-round picks currently in the Sox system include 3B Jake Burger (2017), who has battled a series of injuries, and Vaughn (2019).

Under Hahn's supervision, the White Sox have expanded the baseball operations, analytics, player development and scouting departments, increasing the staff with several new positions. In 2016, Hahn named Chris Getz, a former Sox second baseman, as director of player development. Getz was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Player Development in January 2021. Hahn also promoted Mike Shirley to director of amateur scouting in 2019 and added Hall of Famer Jim Thome to the organization in July 2013, naming the popular former slugger a special assistant. Hahn has traveled to the Dominican Republic multiple times as the White Sox signed several Latin American free agents behind the international scouting of Marco Paddy.

During his 12 seasons as vice president/assistant general manager, Hahn worked with Williams on roster composition, player acquisitions, talent evaluations and contract negotiations.

Prior to joining the White Sox, Hahn spent two years as an associate at Steinberg, Moorad & Dunn, a sports agency based in Newport Beach, Calif., representing more than 150 athletes from Major League Baseball, the National Football League and the National Basketball Association.

Hahn is active in the organization's community outreach efforts as he has met with the organization's Amateur City Elite (ACE) youth baseball teams and volunteered his time serving meals to families at the Ronald McDonald House in downtown Chicago.

Hahn is a native of Winnetka, Ill. and a graduate of New Trier High School, the University of Michigan, Harvard Law School, and Northwestern's Kellogg Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Jean, have two children: Jacob and Charlie.

The White Sox and OF Eloy Jiménez agreed to terms on a six-year, $43-million contract, plus two club options, on March 22, 2019.

- The first official American League game was played on April 24, 1901 between the White Sox and Cleveland Indians. The Sox won, 8-2, with Roy Patterson earning the victory.
- White Sox shortstop Chico Carrasquel, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was the first Latin American player to appear in an All-Star game when he represented the American League in 1951 at Detroit. # 1906 WORLD SERIES

WHITE SOX 4, CHICAGO CUBS 2

Recap: The "Hitless Wonders" White Sox defeated the heavily favored Cubs, winners of a major-league record 116 games, in what was billed as the Trolley Car Series … the Sox batted a league-low .230 during the regular season, were shut out 16 times and hit just seven home runs … conversely, the Cubs fielded the legendary infield of Joe Tinker, Johnny Evers and Frank Chance, and featured the National League's top pitcher in future Hall-of-Famer Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown … the Sox pitching staff posted a league-best 32 shutouts, with ace Ed Walsh recording a league-high 10 followed by Doc White and Frank Owen with seven apiece … despite hitting only .198 in the series, the pitching staff compiled a 1.67 ERA (10 ER/54.0 IP) and allowed only 27 hits (.196 average).

Recap: Nick Altrock outdueled Mordecai "Three Finger" Brown as the White Sox captured the series opener, 2-1 … a pair of errors by the North Siders led to both Sox runs … Frank Isbell's RBI single in the sixth inning gave the White Sox a 2-0 lead, but after a wild pitch in the bottom of the frame brought the Cubs within a run, Altrock fired blanks the rest of the way … the game was played amid snow flurries and freezing temperatures.

Orlando "El Duque" Hernández threw 3.0 scoreless IP in relief in Game 3 of the ALDS at Fenway Park. With Chicago holding a 4-3 lead in the seventh inning, Hernández inherited a bases-loaded, no-out situation but worked out of the jam by retiring Jason Varitek and Tony Graffanino on popups before striking out Johnny Damon on a 3-2 count to end the threat. The White Sox went on to post a 6-3 victory and complete the three-game sweep of the defending World Champion Red Sox.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 8, ANGELS 2

Notes: Freddy García nearly duplicated Mark Buehrle's five-hitter and Jon Garland's four-hitter, making the White Sox the first team to pitch three straight complete games in the postseason since the 1973 New York Mets (Tom Seaver, Jon Matlack and Jerry Koosman) … García, who was pitching for the first time since clinching the ALDS, gave up two early runs while striking out five … A.J. Pierzynski homered for the White Sox, his third of the postseason, and Joe Crede added a two-run single in the eighth off Esteban Yan … Paul Konerko homered in the first inning for the second straight game … Chicago scored seven runs in the first innings of the series.

GAME 5: WHITE SOX 6, ANGELS 3

Notes: The White Sox advanced to their first World Series since 1959, defeating Los Angeles, 4-1, in the ALCS … José Contreras tossed the fourth consecutive complete game by a Sox hurler, retiring his final 15 batters faced as he bounced back after dropping Game 1 … the Angels led, 3-2, when Joe Crede hit a leadoff homer in the seventh off Kelvim Escobar … after Aaron Rowand walked, and A.J. Pierzynski reached first on Escobar's error in the eighth, Crede's slow roller up the middle plated Rowand with the go-ahead run … Paul Konerko, who was named the series MVP, added a RBI double in the ninth and Rowand capped the night with a sacrifice fly … the Sox won the sixth AL pennant in franchise history.

GAME 3: WHITE SOX 7, ASTROS 5 (14)

Notes: For the second straight game, an unlikely hero came to the forefront for the White Sox as Geoff Blum hit a solo home run in the 14th inning to break a 5-5 tie … Blum, who had one prior postseason at-bat, entered the longest game in World Series history in the 13th and lined a 2-0 pitch over the right-field wall to give the Sox the lead … Chicago added an insurance run on Chris Widger's bases-loaded walk … Houston put runners on the corners in the 14th, but Game 2 starter Mark Buehrle came on to retire Adam Everett on a popout to shortstop Juan Uribe to end the game … the Astros left the winning run at third base in the ninth and at second in the 10th and 11th … Jon Garland allowed four runs in the first 4.0 IP but retired 12 of his last 13 batters faced … Chicago overcame a 4-0 deficit by scoring five runs in the fifth off Roy Oswalt, highlighted by Joe Crede's solo homer and A.J. Pierzynski's two-run double that put the Sox ahead, 5-4 … Jason Lane's double off Dustin Hermanson in the eighth tied the game at 5-5 … the 43 players used by both teams was a World Series record, and it marked the first Series game played in Texas.

GAME 4: WHITE SOX 1, ASTROS 0

Notes: The White Sox captured their first World Series title since 1917 with a 1-0 victory over the Astros at Minute Maid Park … Jermaine Dye, the eventual Most Valuable Player of the series, drove in the only run with an eighth-inning single off Brad Lidge that scored Willie Harris … Harris led off the eighth with a single, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Scott Podsednik and to third on Carl Everett's ground out … Bobby Jenks pitched a scoreless ninth inning for the save with help from Juan Uribe, who dove into the stands down the left-field line to record the second out of the final frame before retiring Orlando Palmeiro on a grounder to end the game … starters Brandon Backe and Freddy García each tossed 7.0 scoreless IP … the Astros were 0-11 with runners in scoring position and were held without a run in the final 15 innings of the World Series … Chicago went 11-1 in the postseason, tied for the second-best playoff record since 1969 (minimum seven games).

#Tied For League Lead

THE BIG HURT

- With a .347 average in 1997, Frank Thomas became just the second player (third time) in White Sox history to win the American League batting title. Luke Appling won batting crowns for the Sox in 1936 (.388) and 1943 (.328).
- At 6-foot-5 and 275 pounds, Thomas also is the largest player to win a batting title. Dave Parker (1978-79) and John Olerud (1993) were listed at 6-foot-5 when they led the league in average, while Miguel Cabrera (2011-13, '15) was listed at 250 pounds.

WHITE SOX MINOR LEAGUE SYSTEM

- As part of MLB's plan to modernize the sport's player development system in 2021, the White Sox agreed on Player Development Licenses with the Charlotte Knights, Birmingham Barons, Winston-Salem Dash and Kannapolis Cannon Ballers to continue as Chicago's affiliates. The White Sox will continue to operate their Arizona Rookie League and Dominican Summer League clubs.
- Charlotte has been the Sox Class AAA affiliate since 1999, winning the International League Championship that season. The Knights helped develop All-Stars Joe Crede, Jon Garland, Lucas Giolito and Chris Sale, as well as 2020 Silver Slugger winners Tim Anderson and Eloy Jiménez and 2020 Gold Glove Winner Luis Robert.
- Birmingham, the longest-tenured affiliate in Sox history, has been the Class AA destination for White Sox prospects since 1986. The Barons won Southern League titles in 1993, 2002 and 2013. Hall-of-Famer Frank Thomas played 109 games for Birmingham in 1990 before making his major-league debut. Other notable players to make the jump from Birmingham to Chicago include Mark Buehrle, Jack McDowell, José Quintana, Bobby Thigpen and Robin Ventura.
- Winston-Salem has been a Sox affiliate since 1997, winning the Carolina League title in 2003. The Dash have played a key role in developing White Sox prospects throughout the years, with players such as Aaron Bummer, Adam Engel, Nate Jones, Carlos Lee, Jim Parque and Aaron Rowand spending time in Winston-Salem.
- Kannapolis has been a minor-league affiliate of the White Sox since 2001, winning a South Atlantic League Championship in 2005. Kannapolis served as one of the early development spots for Gordon Beckham, Matt Foster, Gio González, Nick Madrigal and Danny Mendick.

BALLIN' IN KANNAPOLIS

● Class A Kannapolis unveiled its new team name, the Cannon Ballers, in the 2019-20 offseason. Their new identity embodies the circus-like atmosphere of a Minor League Baseball game while paying homage to the foundations of Kannapolis as the town the Cannon Family built. Kannapolis also will open up a new ballpark, Atrium Health Ballpark, in 2020. The site of the new ballpark sits on land that formerly housed Cannon Mills, the world's largest textile factory.

CONFERENCE AND LEARNING CENTER

Since its opening in 2001, the Conference & Learning Center at Guaranteed Rate Field has been the site of hundreds of conferences and seminars, while also serving as a meeting location for civic and charity functions and as the site for all White Sox press conferences and media events.

The facility, a joint partnership between the Illinois Sports Facilities Authority and the White Sox, was designed by Campbell Tiu Campbell, Inc. and built by the joint venture of Walsh/Riteway.

The CLC, which features the latest in communication and presentation technology, offers users full-service catering by Levy Restaurants and on-site parking. It is available year-round for meetings and special events rentals. The center is available for use by local non-profit organizations, businesses and community groups. Non-profit, civic and municipal organizations can use the CLC at a reduced rate or no cost.

Beyond the entertainment provided by baseball's on-the-field activities, the facility allows ISFA and the Chicago White Sox to offer students unique educational opportunities that will allow them to benefit from the experience and knowledge of the organization, its staff and its supporters.

The CLC features a large amphitheater-style auditorium with a seating capacity of 130 and a conference room that seats 20. The large auditorium features individual consoles at each seat, providing direct audio and data connections and computer signal inputs for projection or plasma display.

"Champions Plaza" and "Championship Moments" monument is a diamond-shaped plaza featuring a prominent bronze and granite monument celebrating the White Sox 2005 World Series championship.

The brick plaza, located at U.S. Cellular Field's main entrance, was unveiled during the 2008 season and is comprised of "legacy bricks" inscribed with personal messages from fans and features a historic timeline highlighting franchise milestones.

The large monument is made of a combination of white bronze and black granite and was designed by the same studio (The Fine Art Studio of Rotblatt-Amrany) that developed the popular sculptures of Charles Comiskey, Minnie Miñoso, Carlton Fisk, Luis Aparicio, Nellie Fox, Billy Pierce, Harold Baines, Frank Thomas and Paul Konerko, which are located on the outfield concourse at U.S. Cellular Field.

As part of the 10-year anniversary of the 2005 World Series title, White Sox fans were again given the opportunity to purchase bricks on the plaza in support of Chicago White Sox Charities. Those bricks were installed in spring 2015.

CAMELBACK FACTS AND INFORMATION

A baseball oasis, Sonoran desert-inspired Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G), now in its second decade as the spring home of the White Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers, is a successful public-private partnership between the two teams and the City of Glendale (Arizona). It features a 141-acre campus, largest in the Cactus League, and a state-of-the-are stadium that seats 13,300 fans (10,300 permanent seats, 3,000 grass). A five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (Dodgers) and west (White Sox). The two teams honor their histories with photo opportunities along the water feature recognizing their all-star players.

Attendance

- The Ranch welcomed 244,820 fans in 2019, the third-largest total attendance in facility history. The complex's 8,442 per-game average in 2019 ranked second in its history, falling just 27 fans per game shy of its all-time record (2016). CR-G also recorded seven sellouts in 2018 (one shy of its record of eight).
- The Ranch has hosted more than 200,000 fans 10 times.
- Largest crowd: 13,721 - 3/23/13, White Sox vs. Dodgers
- Largest season attendance: 257,609 (2017)
- Most sold-out games: 8 (2016)

Ballpark Firsts

- Game: White Sox vs. Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Pitch: Hiroki Kuroda, Dodgers, 3/1/09.
- Hit: Jayson Nix, White Sox, double, second inning, 3/1/09.
- Home Run: Gordon Beckham, White Sox, ninth inn., 3/1/09.

The Ballpark at Camelback Ranch

- The stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for over 3,000 fans.
- Natural materials (real stone veneer, architectural metal "rusty" panels, three-tone faux painting) were used for external finishes to blend the desert surroundings. Caramel-colored seats and stone retaining walls further the natural look.
- Prior to the 2020 season, extended the protective netting down the left and right-field lines to ensure the safety of and improve the game-watching experience for fans
- CR-G in 2018 debuted a 30' x 50' Daktronics outfield videoboard. The HD videoboard provides fans with a dramatic upgrade to the visual and interactive experience during games.
- Another significant enhancement in 2018 was the addition of two new 100-foot shade structures along the first base concourse. The structures, designed by HKS, complement existing design features while providing more shaded seating.

Ballpark Boulevard

- Prior to the start of 2020 spring training, the city of Glendale, Camelback Ranch, the White Sox and Dodgers announced the opening of Ballpark Boulevard (111th Avenue).
- The new 1.8 mile stretch of road connects CR-G with the Loop 101, Westgate and Glendale's sports/entertainment district. The road opening greatly enhances gameday ingress and egress.

Campus

- The distinctive complex covers 141 acres, making CR-G the largest campus in the Cactus League.
- The five-acre water feature (connected lake, river and pond) divides the campus into east (LAD) and west (CWS) and provides field irrigation, landscaping and aesthetic enhancement.
- Landscaping includes approximately 5,000 plants and trees.

BASEBALL: ONE GAME FOR ALL

ONE GAME FOR ALL: Through the organization's diversity and inclusion campaign, "BasebALL: One Game for All," the White Sox strive to create a welcoming environment for all people by emphasizing the importance of being kind to others and advocating for the acceptance of individual differences through the shared language of sports.

GAME CHANGERS: For four seasons, the Game Changers event series has advocated for diversity and inclusion in sports, welcoming community members to the ballpark for insightful discussions about topics, including: Race, Culture and Sports; Incorporating Inclusion and Accessibility Through Sports; A Real Conversation on Challenges and Wins for Women Working in Sports; Latinos Reshaping the Sports Journalism Industry; The Legacy of Chicago's Negro Leagues.

PRIDE NIGHT: In recent years, the Sox have held Pride Night at Guaranteed Rate Field, teaming up with the You Can Play Project and MLB Vice Pres./Special Assistant to the Commissioner Billy Bean, who works with 30 MLB clubs to bring awareness to the LGBTQ community and ensure an equitable, inclusive and supportive workplace for everyone.

WORKING IN THE SCHOOLS (WITS) PROGRAM: For more than a decade, nearly 45 front office staff members have volunteered their lunch break once a week to read with third grade students at McClellan Elementary School. WITS midday mentoring students have consistently outpaced non-WITS students in reading level growth.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX CHARITIES

GIVING BEYOND THE DIAMOND: Since the inception of CWSC in 1990, the team's philanthropic giving totals $35 million. The Chicago White Sox Community Fund is supported through a major grant from CWSC and matching funds provided by the Robert R. McCormick Foundation. In 2020, CWSC contributed nearly $1 million in support of White Sox urban youth baseball initiatives - including Amateur City Elite (ACE) and White Sox Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities programs - and non-profit organizations such as the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum and the University of Chicago Urban Labs.

FUNDRAISING BEYOND THE DIAMOND: Thanks to Sox fans' commitment and involvement in special events, 2020 was a successful year for CWSC fundraising, including:

- Sox Split 50/50, presented by Wintrust, surpassed $1 million in funds, with half the proceeds going to CWSC.
- The introduction of cardboard cutouts, FANtastic Faces, engaged more than 3,000 fans watching White Sox games from home, while raising nearly $100,000 for CWSC.
- CWSC contributed $100,000 to the Chicago Community COVID-19 Response Fund and held a custom Chicago To-gether T-Shirt sale that raised an additional $30,000 for the cause.

SOX SERVE WEEK: This week-long community engagement and fundraising campaign has an all-time impact totaling $2 million raised, 65 fundraising events and 66 community activations.

WHITE SOX VOLUNTEER CORPS: The White Sox established the first-of-its-kind Volunteer Corps in 2009. Since its inception, the Volunteer Corps, consist-ing of staff, players and more than 5,000 fan volunteers, has mobilized to provide more than 53,000 hours of service and an estimated $1.2 million valuation in labor. The impact includes 487 events, ranging from renovating local schools to serving meals at Ronald McDonald Houses and more, over the course of the last 12 years. The White Sox Volunteer Corps was honored with the Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2011 and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation's Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy in September 2012.

YOUTH BASEBALL INITIATIVES

AMATEUR CITY ELITE (ACE): In 2007, the White Sox created the Amateur City Elite (ACE) program aimed at providing equal opportunity for all young athletes and offering resources and mentorship to pull kids away from the dangers of inner-city life. ACE offers developmental support and eases the sport's financial constraints to equip inner-city youth with the tools needed for success on the diamond and in life.

ACE SIGNING DAY: The Class of 2020 moved the total number of ACE student-athletes who have gone on to higher education institutions to more than 200 participants. Since 2008, 30 ACE members have been selected in the MLB Draft, and most recently, the Chicago Cubs selected Ed Howard with the 16th overall pick in 2020.

Curtis Granderson, Chicago native and former major-league outfielder, addresses the 2019 ACE signees on ACE signing day at Guaranteed Rate Field.

CHICAGO WHITE SOX RBI PROGRAM: In affiliation with Major League Baseball's Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) and the Chicago Park District, the youth outreach program intends to motivate children in and out of the classroom. In 2019, the Chicago White Sox RBI team won the Junior Baseball Division Championship at the 2019 RBI World Series, marking the group's third title since 2016.

DOUBLE DUTY CLASSIC : Named after Negro League standout Ted "Double Duty" Radcliffe, the Double Duty Classic (DDC) is a celebration of the best inner-city high school players in the country. Since 2007, the DDC has highlighted the history/tradition of Negro League Baseball in Chicago.

CHICAGO SPORTS ALLIANCE

CHICAGO SPORTS ALLIANCE: In 2021, the White Sox, alongside the Chicago Bears, Chicago Blackhawks, Chicago Bulls and Chicago Cubs, enter the fourth consecutive year of the Chicago Sports Alliance, contributing the iconic franchises' combined reach and resources in support of impactful, evidence-based solutions to violence in the city. For the third straight year, the Robert R. McCormick Foundation will match donations from the Alliance, contributing $500,000 toward the Alliance's $1 million commitment.

2020 PARTNERSHIPS: 2020 PARTNERSHIPS: The $1 million in one-time grants will continue to support partnerships with the University of Chicago Crime Lab and READI Chicago (Rapid Employment and Development Initiative). New to 2020, the Alliance has selected to fund the Little Village Prevention and Intervention Initiative, an expansion of READI Chicago-type programming into the South Lawndale-Little Village neighborhood. The grant funding directly supported two established community-based organizations - Enlace and New Life Centers – with their efforts to identify, engage and serve marginalized youth and adults.

2021 CLUB/MEDIA REGULATIONS

These guidelines govern media access to ballparks for 2021 Spring Training and the 2021 Championship Season, subject to change:

1. SPRING TRAINING MEDIA COVERAGE: For their 2021 Spring Training coverage, media should have a dedicated workspace in the ballpark/facility (that complies with COVID-19 best practices, such as physically distanced workstations and mandatory mask use) from which to work and to conduct player interviews virtually.

- A) While in-person or face-to-face interviews that would constitute close contact are not permissible at this time, the Commissioner's Office will permit a Club's plan to enhance media coverage by granting specific requests for individual media members who attend Spring Training to conduct in-person, physically distanced interviews of select Tier 1 personnel that are held in non-Restricted outdoor areas at Club facilities.
    - Any such one-on-one interviews must occur outdoors, and include at least 12 feet of physical distance and masks on all parties (note that a player may choose to remove a mask while speaking on-camera in an outdoors interview).
- B) While field access is not permitted (as playing fields are a Restricted Area), media members will be allowed to observe, from a safe distance, practices and/or workouts on backfields within the facilities, provided they wear a mask and maintain a safe distance from each other and any players or other Club personnel at all times and that the routes to such locations within the facility are separate and distinct for Tier 1 personnel.
- C) Due to health and safety protocols, Spring Training facilities will not be open to members of the media until the day of each Club's first full squad workout. Additionally, 2021 Spring Training Photo Days will be closed to media. MLB will capture headshots and additional posed photos of players in uniform that it will make available to media as pool photos for editorial use. For questions or to request photos, please contact mlbphotos@mlb.com.

2. MEDIA ENTRY: All approved media members will be screened for entry to ballparks, subject to club discretion and standards and policies that will govern entry, which are described in MLB's 2021 Operations Manual. This will include credential, security, medical, and temperature screening. Failure to comply with this screening will result in entry to the ballpark being denied. Clubs may begin to allow media into the ballpark no more than four hours prior to first pitch. Media must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes following the conclusion of postgame interviews.

3. LIMITED NUMBER OF APPROVED MEDIA: Because the total number of people allowed in a facility is subject to local laws and orders, the Clubs reserve the right to make approvals of media applications based on the applicable local guidance and the ability to safely physical distance all media, including by, if necessary, prohibiting media access on any given day (even those who hold otherwise valid credentials).

4. FOLLOWING HEALTH AND SAFETY RULES: By receiving a media credential, a media member agrees to observe all MLB and Club rules; any applicable government orders in a local market; and other precautionary steps that are in place to preserve health and safety. Clubs may, in their discretion, require a negative COVID-19 test result prior to entry by media members. Media members must wear approved face coverings at all times, covering their nose and mouth, and practice physical distancing while present at a Club facility (whether indoors or outdoors). Media members should bring their own face coverings to the ballpark, but Clubs are permitted to provide face coverings to media upon request. Clubs are permitted to require a media member to use a Club-Provided face covering if the Club determines that the media member's personal face covering is inappropriate for any reason. Media members are required to wash or sanitize their hands frequently. Failure to comply with any health and safety initiatives will result in a loss of access to the ballpark.

5. RESTRICTED AREAS: Approved media members will not be permitted in Restricted Areas or in close proximity to Tier 1 Individuals. Restricted Areas include areas of the ballparks frequented by on-field personnel, including personnel at off-site locations. The Restricted Areas include clubhouses, locker rooms, playing fields, dugouts, training rooms, weight rooms, interview rooms and any route inside the ballpark/facility utilized by Tier 1 personnel.

6. CREDENTIALING: A limited number of media members (including photographers) may receive credentials and access to certain Non-Restricted Areas.

- A) All media must apply for a daily credential with the home Club's Media Relations/Communications Department at least 24 hours before a game, using MLB's online credentialing system.
- B) Media members who are not designated as Tier 2 and therefore part of a team's traveling party must be affiliated national baseball writers and must contact the home Club's Communications/Media Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance. Advance notice is vital in order to plan for physically distanced seating.
- C) BBWAA Cards, including gold cards, will be honored during 2021 Spring Training and the 2021 regular season, provided that Clubs are notified 24 hours before the game.
- D) Media members who plan to travel for road games of the primary team they cover must communicate their plans to the Club's Communications/Media Relations Department prior to each road trip.

health and safety considerations. Clubs should also establish a physically distanced area outside of the ballpark to accommodate TV requests for live shots or news stories.

- A) Members of the media will work only from their assigned working area.
- B) The media workspace must be cleaned and disinfected after every use.
- C) Elevators should only be used by media members who are unable to use stairs, and limits should be placed on the number of occupants permitted in a single elevator.

8. VIRTUAL INTERVIEWS: All pregame and postgame interviews must take place by video conference or telephone call and shall be coordinated by Club Media Relations/Communications personnel.

- A) No media will have direct access to players, the manager or other baseball operations personnel.
- B) This policy is subject to ongoing review by Major League Baseball and its Clubs, based on the advice of medical experts and the applicable local guidance in the host city to determine when and if it would be feasible to introduce in-person, physically distanced interviews or press conferences.
- C) Only Tier 1 and Tier 2 Individuals may assist interviewees with interview logistics (e.g., holding a microphone, using a video camera).
    - The Commissioner's Office shall assign several MLB technical staff to perform Tier 2 support functions at all ballparks. These individuals should be cross-trained on how to support broadcaster equipment in the event of an equipment outage during the game. These individuals will also perform tasks such as supporting Dugout iPads, replay and video equipment in the Clubhouse, and robotic cameras including Ballpark Cam. In general, all equipment installation and service should occur while players are not in the ballpark. Equipment support during a game will only be permitted in an emergency. Additionally, the Commissioner's Office shall assign a Tier 2 MLB staffer to perform the duties of the replay headset technician and video room monitor.

9. EXPECTED MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Interviews via video conference or telephone shall include:

- A) Managers should be available both pregame and postgame. Postgame interviews with managers should begin approximately 10 minutes after the final out of the game. The manager's pregame media availability will be expected to occur prior to the start of his Club's batting practice.
- B) At Least One Player Per Day should be made available pregame, with an emphasis on position players.
- C) Players Most Relevant to a Game's Outcome should be made available postgame, soon after the completion of the manager's media availability.
- D) Special Requests should be accommodated when possible, especially for members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Clubs shall make all best efforts to provide access to players of interest, particularly when circumstances warrant (milestones, homecomings, injuries, etc.).
- E) Video b-roll of workouts and batting practices and audio/video of media availability appearances should be made available by the Club Media Relations/Communications Department. Additionally, all virtual interviews should be uploaded to each clubpressbox.com site on a daily basis and in a timely fashion.

10. PHOTOGRAPHY: Clubs may credential still photographers from outside media outlets. Still photographers will shoot the game from portions of the seating area, must avoid touching surfaces with their hands, and must maintain a safe, physically distanced space between them. The photographers may move around portions of the seating bowl during games; however, they must maintain a six-foot "buffer zone" between themselves and the playing field at all times. Photographers may work from the on-field camera wells with Club approval provided that there is plexiglass installed properly, which can be an acceptable replacement for a buffer zone. Photographers may only enter the camera wells through the seating bowl and are strictly prohibited from entering the playing field to gain access to the camera wells. Clubs will detail for photographers which portions of the seating bowl they may access. Photographers may also shoot from any of the off-field photo locations throughout the ballpark with Club approval. Photographers may set up remote cameras in areas proximate to the field, but these cameras must be installed and serviced when players are not inside the ballpark. At no point should a photographer enter the playing field, clubhouse, interview room or other Restricted Area. Photographers are not permitted into the ballpark until four hours prior to first pitch and must leave the ballpark no later than one hour after the conclusion of the game.

11. MEALS: If Clubs provide food service to media, the food must be in individually packaged containers or bags, in takeout form. Media members are permitted to bring outside food into the ballpark, subject to Club approval and screening upon entry.

General Principles

12. Media credentials are not transferable.

13. The Commissioner's Office reserves the right to revoke inappropriately issued credentials.

14. Under no circumstances shall any club discriminate in any fashion against an accredited member of the media based upon race, creed, sex or national origin.

15. MLB's Code of Conduct must be posted prominently at each ballpark, including in clubhouses and media areas. Harassment, physical abuse or threats directed to members of the media (and/or official scorers) by baseball personnel will not be tolerated. Disciplinary action, including fines and suspensions, will be considered in any cases that arise.

16. Telephones from both dugouts to the press box are to be maintained in working order for the purpose of providing information regarding special circumstances to the media during the course of a game. Explanations of injuries should be made as soon as possible (to both the media and others in the stadium).

17. Any club whose personnel violate these regulations will be disciplined. Any member of the media who violates these regulations will lose his or her accreditation.
